

WILSON'S DISMAL BLUFF.

HONOUR MORE CAUSES W. G. SMITH'S ARREST.

The Water-Rate Thief Thinks His "Good Name" Has Twice Been Sold by the "Star."

Charles B. Wilson, the knave who went with the queen in the Hawaiian deck of cards, caused the arrest of the editor of the STAR again to-day for libel. This he did in preference to shooting him, a thing the cowardly Tahitian had been threatening to do since Thursday, in the saloons where he spends his time and presumably what is left of the money he stole under the monarchy.

The editor was notified at noon that he was wanted at the station. Accordingly he went there and was served with the following warrant:

District Court of Honolulu, Island of Oahu, Hawaiian Islands.

COMPLAINT.

Charles B. Wilson, being first duly sworn, says: That Walter G. Smith is guilty of libel in the first degree by printing and publishing a certain article entitled "C. B. Wilson's Bad Break" in a newspaper published at Honolulu, Oahu, on November 17th, 1893, called "The Hawaiian Star," which said article tended to injure the fame, reputation and good name of said Charles B. Wilson, and to bring him into disrepute, abhorrence, odium, hatred, contempt and ridicule.

Subscribed and sworn to before me this 18th day of November, A. D. 1893.

C. B. WILSON.

A. G. M. ROBERTSON, District Magistrate of Honolulu, Island of Oahu.

Wilson's lawyer demanded a bond, which Deputy Attorney-General Wilder fixed at $100. It was at once given, with John Emmelhut as surety.

CIRCUIT COURT NOTES.

An Amusing Divorce Case on Trial This Morning.

The testimony in the divorce case of Kuanani vs. Kekikilani is being heard by Judge Cooper to-day in the Circuit Court. It is said to be of a rich and amusing character. Johnson for the plaintiff and Cecil Brown for the defense.

Puakalehua, Kuanani and Kiki, convicted of violating the gambling laws, were sentenced to pay a fine of $30 each, and costs at the opening of Court this morning.

The divorce case of Phoebe Harrison vs. J. H. Harrison, the testimony in which was taken yesterday, has been taken under advisement by Judge Whitling.

Letters of administration on the estate of A. K. Kuanani, the messenger of the Interior Department, who died lately, have been granted to James H. Boyd, who filed a bond this morning in the sum of $300.

THEY TOOK WATER.

Bluffers Who Are Avoiding Captain Clinie.

Yesterday an ex-member of the Legislature, accompanied by a fish market friend, each provided with five hundred dollars bluff money with which they hoped to back up their convictions regarding the restoration of the ex-Queen within the next six months, went into Smith's shoe store and made known their desire to gamble to the extent of $1000. They were told that they could be accommodated, and Captain Clinie was at once telephoned to and soon put in an appearance with one hundred bright twenty dollar pieces, with which he followed the would-be sports throughout the day, and which he is still carrying, but so far has failed to find the men with the thousand dollars to be risked on the restoration proposition.

MIL WATERHOUSE'S COMPLIMENTS.

He Stands Up for the Annexation Cause and the People's Paper.

EDITOR STAR: The enclosed is a copy of a letter from a friend, who is an elderly merchant of first-class standing. I have been a merchant on my own account from 1833, so am no "spring chicken." Yours truly,

JOHN THOS. WATERHOUSE.

"DEAR FRIEND: You will see by the STAR paper: 'Willis Opens His Mouth.' You need not be afraid that persons will not act. We have got men that will lay down their lives for this cause, and she will not be reinstated at any cost."

Let me congratulate you, Mr. Editor, in daring to do right and displaying your backbone. You are what they used to call, when I went to boarding school in 1825, "A brick."

JOHN THOS. WATERHOUSE.

DIPHTHERITIC SORE THROAT.

A Portuguese Family in Quarantine on School Street.

There is a case of sore throat with diphtheritic symptoms in a Portuguese family on School street. The house has been quarantined and is carefully guarded. Health Officer Reynolds is puzzled to know what to do with four small children in the same house, who will be exposed if the case should turn out to be true diphtheria. He is of the opinion that all such cases should be isolated at the quarantine station, but at present he is taking care of menaces at that point. The matter has been laid before the President of the Board of Health.

Concert This Afternoon.

1. March—"Turner." 2. Overture—"Enchantment." 3. Waltz—"Carlotto." 4. Fantasia—"Popular Airs." 5. Gavotte—"Dearest Love." 6. Minuet—"Ridiculous" (by request). "Hawaii Ponoi."

TWO YEARS' HARD LABOR.

LEE SEE'S SENTENCE TO-DAY FOR LARCENY.

A Native Fined $200 in the District Court for Selling Swipes. Police Court Notes.

In the District Court this morning, on motion of the Attorney General's deputy, the charge of larceny against Lee See was dismissed. The charge against him of larceny in the third degree, in stealing a silver watch, valued at $25, from the house of J. Coughlin at Kaali on November 4th then came up. The complaining witness testified that on the day stated he left his house for a few hours and on his return found that a window had been broken open and the watch stolen.

Hock Chow, a Chinese watchmaker, identified the watch as one he had repaired for Mr. Coughlin a year ago. Detective Larsen testified to finding the watch in defendant's bunk while searching for stolen chickens; also, that the defendant had already served two terms for larceny. The defendant made no defense and was sentenced to two years' imprisonment at hard labor and to pay a fine of $5 and costs.

Kainuwa, for selling swipes at Kikihale, was fined $200 and costs.

Much time of the Court was taken up in investigating a rough and tumble hair-pulling affair between Makai (w) and Kauai, the former being charged with assault and battery. The defendant was found not guilty.

Puakalehua and J. Nawaialua, charged with gambling at dice, next claimed the attention of the Court. The former was dismissed and the latter found guilty and sentenced to pay a fine of $75 and costs.

PORTRAITS OF MASON.

Which Will Adorn the Walls of the New Masonic Temple.

PERSONAL.

Bishop Willis has returned from Lahaina.

F. S. Dodge of the Survey Department has returned from Waikuku.

W. P. Fennell, agent of the Inter-Island Company at Honolulu, Hawaii, is in the city.

Mrs. R. T. Rickard of Hamakua, who was recently stricken with paralysis, is no better at last accounts.

Col. S. Norris and J. H. Martin of Kau and T. K. R. Amala of Kona came over on the Hall yesterday.

General G. T. C. Hogge, A. S. Shepard and J. S. Broomhead returned from the volcano yesterday on the W. G. Hall.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas McTeigue, will celebrate their wedding this evening by a dinner party at their residence.

A Royalist whose son holds a responsible Government position recently dismissed two repair men on his buildings, engaged by his tenant, because they were from an Annexationist firm.

An adv. from the American Legation in reference to the due observance of Thanksgiving day appears in another column.

We wonder how C. B. Wilson will like his transactions in Government horse flesh ventilated?

The STAR job office is filled with late faces of type. Two electric presses complete the outfit.

ANNEXATIONISTS OF MAUI.

MEET AND PASS SOME STRONG RESOLUTIONS.

They Have Confidence in the Provisional Government, but Want Royalists Turned Out.

At a meeting of the Maui Annexation Club, held on Monday, November 13th, the following resolutions were unanimously adopted:

RESOLUTIONS.

Believing the advent of United States Minister Willis to be the precursor of a speedy settlement of the difficulties now existing in these Islands, and believing it to be the duty of the Maui Annexation Club to place itself on record, therefore be it

Resolved, that the members of this club hereby express their firm adherence to the policy laid down by the actions of the Provisional Government on the 17th day of January last, their implicit confidence in, unswerving loyalty to and cordial support of the Provisional Government and its principles.

Deeming it impolitic that officeholders disloyal to the Provisional Government should be permitted to retain office. Therefore, it is

Resolved, That this club heartily endorses the resolution introduced at a session of the Councils, by Mr. Emmelhut, to the effect that all employees of this Government under 45 years of age shall, within ten days, enroll themselves in some one of the volunteer military companies, and those over the age specified shall enroll themselves in the citizens' guard. It is further

Resolved, That copies of this resolution shall be forwarded to the Executive Council of the Provisional Government and to the Executive Committee of the Annexation Club at Honolulu.

ATTEMPTED MURDER.

The Result of a Drunken Row Between Japs at North Kona.

Henry Smith, the clerk of the Supreme Court, received a private letter from North Kona yesterday to the effect that one Japanese had murdered another at Kauhau, North Kona, but giving no particulars. Inquiry at the Marshal's office, however, shows that it was only an attempted murder. During a drunken row one Jap stabbed another in the thigh with a knife. The wound is not a dangerous one and the victim will soon recover from its effects. His assailant is under arrest and the Marshal has forwarded instructions as to his disposition.

THE "STAR'S" LIBEL SUIT.

The Wilson-Smith libel suit came before the District Court this morning.

Wilson being represented by Antonio Rosa and the Editor of the STAR by C. L. Carter. The defendant expressed himself as ready to proceed with the case at the earliest possible moment.

Next Wednesday was set for the examination.

HAWAII ILLUSTRATED.

A recent number of the Traveler, a San Francisco monthly, contains a beautifully illustrated article on the Hawaiian Islands from the pen of L. F. Cooker. The subjects illustrated are: Fishing canoes at Waialeale river, Hilo; street scene in Honolulu; Waialeale Falls; Kaunani; photograph of a Kahuna; Diamond Head; a thatched village in Hilo; cluster of palms and bread fruits at Hilo.

THE HAMAKUA FOREST.

Commissioner Marsden is preparing a list of seeds of various trees suitable for planting in the portion of the Hamakua forest lately denuded of vegetation by cattle. The order will be sent on the next steamer, and, upon arrival, the seeds will be distributed among the managers of the various sugar companies in the Hamakua district, who have agreed to plant and care for them.

THANKSGIVING DAY.

It is expected that the text of President Cleveland's Thanksgiving Day proclamation will be received by the steamer of the 23d, and that U. S. Minister Willis will follow the custom of his predecessors in calling upon the American colony here to give it due observance. Special Thanksgiving services will be held both at the Central Union Church and St. Andrew's Cathedral.

BOWSTING HEMP.

Commissioner Marsden has had numerous callers this morning, who were after information in regard to bowstring hemp. The publication of Mr. Marsden's article relating thereto in yesterday's STAR has attracted general attention, and a number of prominent gentlemen have signified their intention of giving its cultivation an immediate trial.

THE "RESTORATION" BALL.

It is reported that a large number of ex-royalist sympathizers of the female gender are having ball dresses made for the "restoration" festivities. 'Tis said that it is an ill wind that does not blow some good to some one, and in this case the dressmakers and sewing girls will receive a benefit—always providing that they get paid for the materials and labor.

J. G. Faria has been arrested for selling liquor on Kinu street without a license. A quantity of wine, gin and rum was captured by the police.

The extra guards on duty at the Government buildings are kicking about the quality of the coffee supplied them this morning.

Sealed tenders are asked for by the Minister of the Interior for the construction of a jail at North Kohala, Hawaii.

The "busses" continue to do the liveliest kind of a business on Nuuanu street.

THE HONOLULU LIBRARY.

ITS ANNUAL MEETING HELD LAST NIGHT.

A Failing OF IN THE MEMBERSHIP REPORTED—Meeting of the Board of Trustees.

The members of the Honolulu Library Association held their postponed annual meeting last night at the Library building. After reading the minutes of last meeting the treasurer read his annual report which showed that the receipts for the past year had been $8306, as follows: From fees to library, $1277; from donations and legacies, $5050, and from other sources, $3039.

The reports of the library committee and librarian were then read and adopted.

At the election for the Board of Trustees the old members were all re-elected, with the exception of S. N. Castle, who has removed to the States. Dr. N. B. Emerson was elected in his place on the third ballot, his competitor being Dr. McGrew. The members of the Board are: M. M. Scott, A. S. Hartwell, C. R. Bishop, J. H. Fisher, H. A. Parmelee, C. T. Rodgers, Wm. Foster, W. F. Allen, Henry Waterhouse, S. B. Dole, Mary A. Burbank, C. M. Hyde and N. B. Emerson.

The meeting then adjourned.

A meeting of the Board of Trustees was then held and the officers for the ensuing year elected as follows: C. R. Bishop, president; M. M. Scott, vice-president; H. A. Parmelee, secretary, and Mary A. Burbank, treasurer.

Dr. Rodgers moved that, as the president, Mr. Bishop, is absent from the country at present, that the vice-president, M. M. Scott, be authorized to appoint all committees. This was carried and the meeting adjourned.

NEWS IN A NUTSHELL.

George Paris has lost a bicycle.

Last night's STAR had a lively and heavy sale.

Band concert this afternoon if the weather is fair.

An artesian well is being bored near the Annexation Club offices.

The Annexation Club officers will meet at 8 o'clock to-night, as usual.

The work of putting in the inside brick coating of the smoke-stack of the Electric Light Works will be commenced on Monday. It will be a single brick thick, the bricks being laid on end. Two men only can work in the shaft at a time.

Sam Thompson, the genial mate of the W. G. Hall, who has been in the hospital for some time past, was aboard the Hall this morning, and will doubtless be well enough to assume command of the Kaala on her next trip, if, as it was stated some days ago, he receives the appointment.

FLOTSAM AND JETSAM.

THE KIKITAT TOWED TO SEA THIS MORNING.

The Bark Albert—The Transit Completed Her Cargo and Will Sail To-morrow.

The pilot-drift has resumed work at Brewer's wharf.

The W. G. Irwin sails for San Francisco next Tuesday.

The steel bark R. P. Rithet is docked at the Oceanic wharf.

The J. A. Cummins came off the marine railway yesterday.

The schooner Haleakala sails for Kona, Hawaii, to-morrow.

The barkentine Amelia was reported off Koko Head at 2 o'clock.

The Adams is being supplied with coal to-day by the Commodore's fleet.

The schooner Robert Lewers is receiving sugar from the steamer Waialeale to-day.

The Transit sails for San Francisco to-morrow with a light cargo of island produce.

The Enoch Talbot is docked at the new wharf where she is discharging her cargo of coal.

The steamer W. G. Hall came in yesterday afternoon with a long list of passengers and a heavy cargo of island produce.

The bark R. P. Rithet received 2300 bags of sugar from the steamer W. G. Hall this morning and the W. G. Irwin 1576 bags.

The Transit finished loading this morning. She received 1700 bags of sugar from the W. G. Hall.

The Miowera is listed over farther than ever to-day, and a gang of men are at work cleaning and repairing the stern.

The steamer Mukoli came in about 12 o'clock last night with 100 sheep, 14 head of cattle and 73 green hides. There were three deck passengers.

The Iwalani came in this morning with 1660 bags of sugar for Hackfeld & Co., 50 bags of rice for G. Y. K., and 30 bags of rice for W. C. L. Her only passengers were three on deck.

The bark Albert now anchored in the stream is much talked about as being the most trim and handsomely formed vessel sailing into this port. When loaded well down in the water the Albert has much the appearance of a yacht, both as regards the lines of her hull, and the beautiful set of her masts and trimness of her rigging.

The barkentine Kikikat was towed to sea by the Elen this morning. There was no wind to speak of, and when last seen by those aboard the tug the Kikikat was rolling almost rail under with every swell, her canvas flapping idly about the spars. The prolonged spell of prevailing light winds is a matter of some comment on the water front, and to that is attributed the present safe berth of the Miowera.
